RECIPROCAL FLIGHT ATTENDANT JUMPSEAT AGREEMENT

Frontier Airlines and Omni Air International agree to a reciprocal interchange of cabin jumpseat privileges for current qualified flight attendants of the two companies. This agreement is subject to the following restrictions:

- Jumpseat travel is contingent upon space availability and/or load restrictions on a segment-by-segment basis; user agrees to leave the aircraft on any stop when requested to do so by a company representative.
- Use of the jumpseat is limited to flight attendants on active, working status and may not be trainee, contract, or furloughed personnel.
- Requests for the jumpseat must be made at the gate one (1) hour prior to departure.
- Requests must be accompanied by a valid company photo ID card.
- Jumpseat riders may be required to complete an ACM (Additional Crew Member) form.
- Jumpseat accommodation is based on priority and check-in time (first come, first served), with Frontier Airlines personnel having first priority.
- Dress requirements are company uniform or business casual attire.
- Jumpseat riders must observe strict professional conduct and decorum at all times.
- Jumpseat requests may be honored with a jumpseat or a cabin seat assignment.

Jumpseat travel is a discretionary courtesy and is subject to all applicable FARs, company regulations, and the permission of the captain. Frontier Airlines reserves the right to change or cancel any condition of this agreement at any time.

Flight schedules are available on our web site at www.frontierairlines.com.

This agreement will become effective the first of the month following the month in which it is signed by representatives of both companies.
