

Reciprocal Flight Attendant Jumpseat Travel Agreement

Effective July 31, 2017, Omni Air International (OY) and Silver Airways agree to a reciprocal interchange of cabin jumpseats for current qualified flight attendants of the two companies subject to the following conditions:

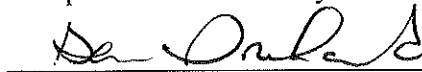

- Transportation is contingent upon availability and/or load restrictions
- Transportation provided under this agreement is solely for travel that is strictly personal in nature and is not to be used for business related travel
- If traveling to an international destination, user will carry passport, visa, and any other documents necessary to satisfy customs, immigration, public health, and/or security at each point of entry and agrees to pay any and all international departure taxes and fees
- User must be in full company uniform to occupy a flight attendant jumpseat
- User must provide a current company photo identification card
- User must be on active flight attendant status (not trainee, contract, or furloughed)
- User must report to the ticket counter or gate at least one hour prior to departure
- User agrees to assume all risk related to accident, injury, loss or damage to property, and agrees that Omni Air International will not be held liable for any such injury, death, loss, or damage
- Offline flight attendants will be boarded in the order they arrived, with priority given to OAI employees
- Users of both airlines will occupy the first available passenger seat before occupying a cabin jumpseat, when permissible by contract
- Luggage is not to be checked at the ticket counter, as boarding is not assured
- Users will observe strict professional conduct and decorum at all times
- Users will not consume any alcohol while utilizing this agreement
- The Captain has the final authority on the approval of any or all non-revenue riders

Jumpseat travel is a discretionary courtesy and is subject to all applicable F.A.R.s and company regulations. Either party may terminate this agreement with 30 days written notice to the other. This agreement replaces any previous travel agreements and any amendments must be in writing and signed by an authorized representative of both parties.
